TABLE SETTING AND MENU PLANNING CONTEST

Thursday, September 16th at 6:30 p.m. in the Home & Creative Arts area of the Fair Building.

***NEW*** Preregistration required ***

Organized by Tammy Gibbs and Nancy Masterson 962-4937

Awards: Plaque and $25 for each Best of Division and Rosette for Best of Show.

Open to Baker County Adults and Youth - Age 8 through High School - 4 Divisions:

- Adult
- Senior – grades 10-12
- Intermediate – grades 7-9
- Elementary – grades 3-6

Purpose: The purpose of the contest is to encourage the art of table setting, to learn proper placement of dinnerware, flatware, etc. and to be creative in coordinating the menu and table setting.

Theme: The table will be set with two place settings (one for you and a guest) and should have a theme. Examples: Christmas Dinner, Graduation Party, Sunday Brunch)

Menu: The menu should be appropriate for the occasion and should be displayed on an 8x10 surface to be part of the exhibit. No references to alcoholic beverages are allowed. Each contestant will be assigned a 6'x6' area and will supply their own table. The occasion can be as simple or elaborate as they wish. It should include eating utensils, beverage glasses, dishes, tablecloth or placemats, napkins, and centerpiece. A recipe card for one of the menu items must be included.

Dress: The contestant should wear an outfit that would be appropriate for the occasion and theme selected.

An informational meeting will be held for interested participants where a walk-through of the contest will be demonstrated and is highly recommended for first time entrants to observe. Rules and guidelines will be provided at that time. Please call Nancy Masterson by August 1 to sign up for the informational class. 962-4937
